

Spring GradFest 2017 Programme

	Monday 30 Oct	Tuesday 31 Oct	Wed 1 Nov	Thur 2 Nov	Friday 3 Nov
10:00–10:50 am	GradFest welcome & opening address - The thesis journey Jon Harding & Ian Wright Undercroft 101	Preparing for fieldwork Jon Harding Undercroft 101 OR The publication process Judith Coullie Central Library 308	Thesis structure & planning Elizabeth Lochhead Central Library 308 OR TURNITIN Pinelope Zaka & Pam Grant Central Library-The Den	Developing entrepreneurship Rachel Wright Central Library 210 OR Literature Reviews Jessica Ritchie and Janette Nicolle Undercroft 101	Writing a coherent thesis: Key strategies Julie Wuthnow Undercroft 101 Biculturalism in Aotearoa New Zealand and at UC: How this affects my research?* Mary Boyce Central Library 210
10:50–11:10 am	Morning tea break (provided by DVC Office) Drop in desk at morning tea + SOARS
11:10–12:00 pm	Applying for research ethics approval Jane Maidment Undercroft 101 OR Proofreading v content editing: Never let your proof-reader do these three things Dirk Pons Central Library 210	Preparing for the oral exam Bryce Williamson Undercroft 101 OR Keeping current Kerry Gilmour Central Library 310	Electronic networking Catherine Febria Central Library 210 OR Writing in your own words: Summarising Jessica Ritchie Undercroft 101	EndNote for PC & Mac Dave Lane Central Library-The Den OR Introduction to the Sage Research Methods Janette Nicolle & Margaret Paterson Central Library 310	Dealing with problems with supervision* Catherine Moran Undercroft 101 OR Statistical analysis: How to get started Elena Moltchanova Central Library 210
12:00–1:00 pm	Lunch break (Friday BBQ Lunch on Okeover Lawn, sponsored by PGUCSA)
1:00–1:50 pm	Becoming an academic: Everybody goes through st Daniel Stouffer Undercroft 101 OR Thesis proposal (Qualitative) Judith Coullie Central Library 308 OR Thesis proposal (Quantitative) Jacqui Tither Central Library 210	Giving a research presentation Jon Harding Undercroft 101 OR NVivo for literature reviews Kerry Gilmour Central Library-The Den OR Linkedin for Postgrads Meg Upjohn Central Library 210	Career options for postgraduates Dave Petrie Undercroft 101 OR Culture map: Navigating cross-cultural communication Jonie Chang & Sarah Beaven Central Library 210	Publishing research and co-authorship Philip Schluter & Anton Angelo Undercroft 101 OR Let's SOAR together: Peer-support SOAR advisors Central Library 308
2:00–2:50 pm	Using technology to enable your research Mushtak Dawood Undercroft 101 OR Word for long documents Nick Scullin & Dave Lane Central Library-The Den	Critical reading & note-taking (Quantitative) Jacqui Tither Undercroft 101 OR Critical reading & note-taking (Qualitative) Judith Coullie Central Library 308 OR How to plan for statistics in your thesis Elena Moltchanova Central Library 210	Psychometric testing (2 hour session) Dave Petrie & Jessica Ritchie Undercroft 101 OR Punctuation (2 hour session) Elizabeth Lochhead Central Library 308	Getting the best out of Google Scholar Janette Nicolle Central Library-The Den OR Writing CVs and cover letters (2 hour session) Dave Petrie & Jacqui Tither Undercroft 101	Post comments, questions and feedback on https://goo.gl/aeCIHH  or Twitter: #GradFestUC
3:00–4:00 pm	Welcome social sponsored by PGUCSA in the Shilling Club

* Sign up for these sessions in the Undercroft 101 seminar room. These sessions will proceed if there are 10 or more students enrolled.